

7.2 Best Practices

1. Exclusively girls are engaged in performing ritual rites.

Objectives

- To bring girls on par in spiritual rites
- To make girls think superior in patriarchy
- To bring them equal rights in ritual rites

Context

The sacred Indian land is also called "Bharatmatha" but women folk won't be allowed to perform ritual rites like "Fire offering ceremony". In this respect they are inferior to men folk. By this best practice, in future, they also achieve equality in ritual rites and in everything.

Evidence of success

1. Girls attained self-confidence, courage and perseverance by performing ritual rites.
2. With God's grace and blessings they could achieve their goal with staunch one minded - determination.
3. Girls, who performed ritual rites, are in good position.

2. Counting, checking and tallying Perur Temple Hundi Offerings:

Objectives

- To develop sincerity in handling public property
- To gain the knowledge of arranging notes and put denomination swiftly.
- To have the knowledge in tallying the amount.

Context

This subject oriented habit of rendering service in temple hundi counting work enhances students' power in counting notes, coins and discriminating good and fake notes. It also inculcates sincerity in young hearts in handling precious public offerings in hundi. It also increases swift dexterity which helps them in competitive examinations to answer all questions in limited time.

Evidence of success

1. Students succeeded in competitive examinations.
2. Counting, checking and tallying habit enabled them to get job opportunity in banks, government and private sectors.

Principal
Thavathiru Santhalinga Adigalar
Arts Science and Tamil College
Perur-PO, Coimbatore-641 010.